Fall 2017 Library Resources Workshops

October 3

Intro to House History: Learn about the information you can glean through microfilm resources (including city directories and tax assessment records), digital resources (such as the building permits database and related History Quest platform), and hands-on access to real estate atlases, all in search of the history behind D.C. buildings.

October 17

Design Inspiration from the Archives: The collections are a goldmine for design inspiration. In this workshop we'll share a range of selections, from Victorian dance cards to mid-century modern government docs, punk rock posters to 1940s restaurant menus, gold-inlaid bindings to mod fashions in the Star collections. Let the typography and ornament inspire your next creative project!

November 14

Digital DC History 24/7: This workshop is an introduction to online resources for D.C. history, from government databases to blogs and interactive maps. Learn the ins and outs of some of these detailed websites so that you can conduct access D.C. history resources 24/7. Participants will receive an annotated list of over 40 free websites on D.C. History.

November 28

Intro to House History: Learn about the information you can glean through microfilm resources (including city directories and tax assessment records), digital resources (such as the building permits database and related History Quest platform), and hands-on access to real estate atlases, all in search of the history behind D.C. buildings.

December 12

Wildcard Workshop: What are you interested in learning more about? Let us know! This workshop will be on a to-be-announced topic that can be explored through the collections of both institutions.
